Dear Sir:

As "Chief" of C. I. A., and the wise defender of American freedom, which through your work you have made us all aware, I am certain you will lend an ear to my brain-child of an idea for detracting Mjr. Castro from his threats and further communistic engulfments.

Since the situation does not seem to get better, if anything, worse, I'm sure you must feel that any new approach, short of taking up arms would warrant your consideration. By its sheer simplicity, the plan almost promises a successful outcome.

Should you wish to know what this plan consists of, please note that I shall be at your disposal.

Thanking you in service, I am -

Sincerely yours,

STAT
